The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chen.

Chen discloses a device comprising a platform (11) Legs (20) a rotating handle which is adapted to be slidably positioned (at element 18), said device being rotatable to a series of positions and locked in place by element 35.

Claim 3 fails to further add any limiting feature to the device and or structure to achieve such a function.

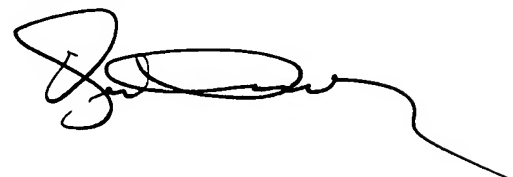

Conner discloses the inventions of 1-7 as claim absent the feature of the platform comprising padding.

To include padding on a user occupied platform is obvious.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Note the overall structure of the device of Winkelvoss Reynolds and Schatz et al.
